MICHELE GOLDSTEIN'S LUCHEN KUGEL

Michele is a Tri-Gam who used to live by the Gas and Grab on Route 3 in Sandy Harbor. Michele says that this recipe is sort of a Jewish mac and cheese, and it's definitely a comfort food! She serves it as a side dish to break her family's fast on Yom Kippur.

MIX TOGETHER:

1 lb. wide egg noodles, cooked

1 c. sour cream

1 lb. small curd cheese

½ lb. cubed Velveeta (yes, Velveeta!)

1/3 c. sugar

1 stick of butter, melted

Place above mixture in a greased 9 X 13 pan.

BEAT TOGETHER:

4 eggs

½ c. sugar

1 tsp. vanilla

1-3/4 c. milk

Cinnamon to taste

Pour this over the top of the noodle mixture.

Sprinkle a cinnamon/sugar mix on top, if you'd like.

Cover with foil.

Bake at 350 degrees for 75 minutes.
